LETTER FROM REV. S. M. RAMSEY, D. D.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in Cedarville, Ohio, May 18, 1921.
My Dear Brethren in the Lord:

It was with much pleasure that I received your letter of last year, and its message was highly appreciated. Being so widely separated from any of our own denomination, and so seldom seeing any of our own ministers, added to the pleasure of your letter. For more than six years I have not looked upon the face of a fellow-minister of our church, but we have not been alone; we can say with the Psalmist:

"Nevertheless continually
O Lord I am with Thee;
Thou dost me hold by my right hand
And still upholdest me."

I might be tempted to seek closer relations with those near at hand, were it not that I feel that our church in her "distinctive principals" excels them all. Instead of our principles being out of date and obsolete, they are the most up-to-date of any that I know. There is no church that sets forth so clearly and so fully the teachings and the plain meaning of the Word of God. What the church needs today, is the living of these principles by all of God's people. Indeed, we believe that when the Holy Spirit "leads His people into all truth" they will be in very close accord with the principles of our church. The church is not going to live always on its present low level. The Holy Spirit, like an incoming tide, will lift her into a higher plane and give her a clearer vision of truth and duty. When we see as God sees, when we think as God thinks, when we feel as God feels, then we will do as God commands. The great outstanding principle of our church has ever been to honor the Son, to exalt Christ and give Him His proper place. He has been given universal authority and supremacy; He claims this; we should yield to and acknowledge His claim. We must do so, "for he that honoreth not the Son, honoreth not the Father who hath sent Him."

Brethren, what greater honor can we give our blessed Lord, what greater service can we render Him, than to go on faithfully doing our own work in our own denomination? The story is told: A man owned a few acres of land several miles from a large city. He had never thought much of the place, he seldom visited it, and got but little good from it. He thought he would sell it, and so he put it into the hands of a real estate agent. The agent went to see it and prepared an advertisement for the papers. It read, "For Sale—A fine country home site, five acres, a good location, beautiful prospect, a comfortable house, surrounded by many large trees, gravelled walks, a running stream in the rear, good road in front, near depot; could easily be made an elegant country residence." Before publishing it, the agent took it to the owner and read it to him. After hearing it, he said, "Read that to me again." After hearing it the second time he said, "I don't think I will sell. I have often wished for such a place and I didn't know I had it." Brethren, do we know the value of what we have?

Praying for God's blessing upon you,

Your Brother in Christ,

(Signed) S. M. RAMSEY.

Los Angeles, Cal.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved that General Synod has heard with great pleasure the excellent letter of Rev. S. M. Ramsey of Los Angeles, Cal.

That General Synod warmly reciprocates the friendly feeling expressed in the letter, and orders that the letter be published in the Minutes of General Synod and that the Clerk be instructed to write Rev. Ramsey an appropriate letter conveying the greetings of Synod.

The Western Presbytery then submitted its report:

REPORT OF THE WESTERN PRESBYTERY

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in Cedarville, Ohio, the third Wednesday of May, 1921, the Western Presbytery would respectfully report:

Two regular meetings and one special meeting have been held.

At the special meeting, held in Coulterville, Ill., Sept. 11, Rev. Andrew S. Creswell tendered his resignation as pastor of the Grand Cote Reformed Presbyterian Church.

His resignation was accepted, to take effect at the close of September, and on the 27th of that month he was certified to the Detroit Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church, with whose bounds he had been called to enter a new field of labor.

Presbytery bore testimony to the faithful service rendered as preacher and pastor during the more than four years he had been in that field.

Thus another congregation has become a vacancy. Ordinances have been dispensed with little interruption during the vacancy, most of the supplies coming from the Xenia Seminary in Saint Louis. Arrangements have been made for supply during the summer by one of our own students.

Preaching has been regularly kept up in the other congregations. Los Angeles, Republican City, Kansas, and Concord and Bethel congregations, in Illinois. Something has been done for the Forward Movement in all our congregations, but none of them have gone over the top except Los Angeles.

The matter of the Hill Prairie property is still unsettled, it being a time of depression in real estate in Marisa. There is a disposition on the part of some to forsake the assembling of themselves together in the house of God, and a tendency to make the Sabbath a day of pleasure rather than a day of worship.

Reforms of various kinds have found support in our respective communities. We have need to pray "Help, Lord, for the godly man ceaseth and the faithful fail from among the children of men."

"Arise, O God, plead thine own cause, for thou shalt inherit all nations."

Praying that all your deliberations may tend to the coming of the Kingdom, we respectfully submit our report.

W. J. SMILEY, Moderator

RALPH T. ELDER, Clerk.

The report was received and referred to the committee on Presbyterian reports.

The Pittsburgh Presbytery submitted its report.

REPORT OF THE PITTSBURGH PRESBYTERY

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Cedarville, Ohio, on the third Wednesday of May, 1921, at 8 o'clock P. M.:

Your Pittsburgh Presbytery would respectfully report the following:

During the past Synodic year two regular meetings have been held and the usual business has been attended and usual order observed.

On the 26th of May, 1920, a commission of Presbytery installed Rev. Robert Nichols Colman, Pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Fairview, Beaver County, Pennsylvania. The occasion was one of pleasure and profit. All the Presbyteries under the care of General Synod were represented at the memorable services and all took part. Rev. John Park, from the Philadelphia Presbytery, preached the installation sermon, which was able and very appropriate. Rev. W. P. Harriman, from the Ohio Presbytery, and Rev. Ralph S. Elder, from the Western Presbytery, all these good brethren took part in the impressive and solemn services. Our young brother was cordially welcomed in the usual manner. It is the desire that the union formed so happily may be a mutual blessing to both pastor and people, and it is the desire of the Presbytery that the King and Head of the Church may be glorified. We commended pastor and people to the gracious care of him who has said, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."

On Wednesday evening, June 23, 1920, a commission of Presbytery conducted the licensing of Mr. Paul Warren Duncan, a student of theology, under the care of Presbytery, in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Darlington, Pa. The usual order was observed and the young brother was duly licensed to preach the everlasting gospel of the Son of God. May the Divine blessing rest richly and constantly upon our young brother. May he "take good heed unto himself, and to the doctrine, and continue in them; for in doing this he shall both save himself and them that hear him." The Presbytery rejoices in the noble and godly young men under her care who are preparing for the Gospel Ministry.

As the Beulah congregation is reduced in membership, and only two families remain, they asked for certificates in order that they might unite with another denomination. The Clerk of Presbytery was authorized to give them their certificates of membership when the remnant members desired them. The request has not yet been made for the certificates.

The congregations within our bounds have contributed to The Chinese Famine Relief, The Near East Relief, The Anti-Saloon League, The Pennsylvania Sabbath Association, The American Bible Society. Some personal gifts have been sent to our Foreign Mission Board. The treasury of the Forward Movement has been kept before the people, both in the literature which the committee sent out, and from the pulpits. While the contributions to the fund are not all that we could desire, yet, we thank God and take courage, and we will not despise the day of small things. The general depression in the price of all farm products is felt in our contributions, but God's people are to give "according to what a man hath."

The Woman's Missionary Societies continue faithful in their important work. It is wonderful that these little bands of faithful women have accomplished since the day of Pentecost for the honor of Christ and the cause of missions. May God bless them and strengthen their hearts and hands more and more for His noble work, and their noble work, also.

The young people's societies continue to render faithful service for the welfare of the home, the church and the Sabbath School. May the spirit of diligence be poured out upon them, one and all, that they may be more consecrated to the work of Christ.

Under the care of Presbytery are the following students of theology: Messrs. Paul Warren Duncan, who will complete his full course in the Seminary in June, 1921; Carl G. Duncan, Harold D. Hammond and Newton Carl Elder.

Praying that the spirit of brotherly love, peace and harmony may be poured out in large measures upon all the members of Synod, we most respectfully submit our report.

JOHN B. WILSON, D. D., Moderator
ALEXANDER SAVAGE, Clerk.

New Galilee, Pa., May 16, 1921.

The report was accepted and referred to the committee on Presbyterian reports.

The delegate to the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, reported. It was voted that the report be approved, and the Treasurer of General Synod be authorized to pay the usual appropriation of Forty Dollars ($40.) to the Alliance.

The Delegate to the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, Rev. W. P. Harriman, reported that circumstances made it impossible for him to attend the meeting. The report was approved.

The delegates to the Christian Reformed Church reported they had no report. Approved.

Delegate to the World's Conference on faith and Order, Rev. R. W. Chesnut, reported that he had received no notice as to the time and place of meeting, and had not therefore been able to get in touch with the conference. Report was approved.

Rev. Ralph Stewart Elder, Delegate to the Associate Presbyterian Synod, which met at Rimersburg in May 1920, reported that he had attended the Synod, and his presence was most cordially received. Report was approved.

The Report of the Board of Trustees of Theological Seminary was read:

May 19, 1921.

Audited May 20, 1921, by the committee and found correct: Robert N. Colman, S. B. Anderson, S. L. Robb.

The report was received and referred to the Auditing Committee, and it was ordered that the money to which reference was made in the report be paid to the Treasurer of the Home Mission Board.

The following preamble and resolution was adopted:

Whereas Mrs. M. B. Scott, widow of Rev. James Scott, of the early history of the Republican City Church, who is now with her son, Dr. Stanley Scott of Clifton, Kans., and who is evidently drawing near to the end of her earthly pilgrimage, and

Whereas she still loves the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and is vitally interested in all its work, although for convenience she has transferred her membership to the Presbyterian Church U. S. A.

Resolved that the Clerk be authorized to convey the greetings and sympathies of Synod to this faithful and venerable servant of Christ and also that the Rev. R. W. Chesnut be requested to lead the General Synod in prayer in behalf of Mrs. M. B. Scott, to the end that if it be God's will she may be spared, and that the grace, love and peace of God may be her joy and support in this hour of affliction.

Rev. R. W. Chesnut then led the Synod in earnest prayer in behalf of Mrs. Scott.

Mr. A. B. McMillan, Treasurer of the Foreign Mission Board submitted his report.

REPORT OF THE PHILADELPHIA PRESBYTERY

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Cedarville, Ohio, on May 18, 1921:

During the Synodic year two regular meetings have been held. At our semi-annual meeting, held on May 3, 1921, the Rev. R. W. Chesnut was re-appointed as Stated Supply of the Duanesburg Congregation. At the same meeting the Duanesburg congregation requested Presbytery to ask General Synod for an appropriation of $200 from the Home Mission Board.

It is with sorrow of heart that we record the death of Mr. Wm. J. Morrison, a ruling elder in the Third Reformed Presbyterian Church for nearly 26 years, which sad event took place on March 10, 1921. At the time of his death, Mr. Morrison was president of the Board of Trustees of our Theological Seminary.

The Sacraments have been dispensed regularly. Each of our churches reports encouraging increase in membership. The liberality of our churches this year has been comparatively generous, and indicates the interest our people are taking in the support of the Lord's work.

Thanking God for the blessings received and praying for the favor of our Heavenly Father to be upon your meeting and deliberations, we respectfully submit our report.

JAMES L. CHESNUT, Moderator
THOMAS WHYTE, Clerk.

The report was received and referred to the Committee on Presbyterian Reports.

The Ohio Presbytery presented its report.

REPORT OF THE OHIO PRESBYTERY

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Cedarville, Ohio, May 18, 1921, the Ohio Presbytery would report as follows:

During the year closing but one meeting has been held, that in the Cedarville Church, May 16, 1921. At this meeting the routine business for the year was transacted and delegates appointed to General Synod.

On July 2, 1920, Rev. Wm. Waide was, at his own request, dismissed of the Chicago Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. The action of the Clerk in issuing the letter was sustained. The Presbytery now has one congregation and three ordained ministers, W. R. McChesney, W. P. Harriman and F. A. Jurkat. Presbytery has one theological student under its care, Gavin Reilly, of Canada, who, during the greater part of the year, has been pursuing his studies in our College and Seminary.

The Cedarville congregation continues to flourish, under the efficient and energetic ministrations of the pastor, Rev. W. P. Harriman. The collections for the benevolent enterprises of the church for the past year amounted to $3500; and in addition to this, $1281 has been paid into the Forward Movement. The pastor has been untiring in his efforts at carrying out the program prepared by the Forward Movement Committee for the winter months, and the results are seen in the high-water mark for mission contributions.

The congregation appreciates very highly the presence of the College and of the Seminary. The work of the young people of our own denomination in attendance at these institutions, as well as some of sister denominations, has contributed greatly to the efficiency of the congregation. We commend these institutions to the continued prayers and liberality of the church.

Praying for the Divine guidance and blessing of the King and

Head of the church upon your meeting and deliberations, we submit our report.

W. R. McCHESNEY, Moderator
F. A. JURKAT, Clerk.

The report was received and referred to the Committee on Presbyterian Reports.

It was voted that the report of the Committee on the Forward Movement be made the Order of the Day for Saturday morning.

The Treasurer of the Home Mission Board, Mr. W. J. Imbrie, presented his report.

The report was received and referred to the Auditing Committee.

It was voted that the thanks of General Synod be tendered to Mr. W. J. Imbrie, Treasurer of the Home Mission Board, and of other Boards, for the faithful, efficient and gratuitous manner in which he has attended to the duties devolving upon him in the several responsible positions which have been entrusted to him, and which he is filling so faithfully.

It was voted that General Synod extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Alex. Colville of Phila., for his faithful and efficient services as Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary.

The following preamble and resolution were presented:

Whereas it appears that the right to elect the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary belongs to the Board itself, and not to General Synod.

Resolved, that this General Synod recognizes this right of the Board, and hereby makes request that the Board should it see its way clear, would elect Mr. W. J. Imbrie as its treasurer, and that if such be not the mind of the Board, it will proceed to elect a Treasurer who will co-operate with this Synod, as Mr. Imbrie has done.

Discussion proceeded on the motion. An amendment was offered to the effect that the latter part of the resolution be eliminated. The was adopted, the motion resulting being as follows: Whereas it appears that the right to elect the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary belongs to the Board itself, and not to General Synod,

Resolved, that this General Synod recognize this right and hereby makes request that the Board elect its own Treasurer.

It was so ordered.

Mr. W. J. Imbrie, Treasurer of the Theological Seminary Fund presented his report.

The Committee on Evangelism submitted its report: The report was approved and ordered published in the Minutes.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to meet in Cedarville, Ohio, May 18, 1921.

The Committee on Evangelism recognizes the importance of the work of evangelism in the upbuilding of the Kingdom of our Lord. It is difficult to lay down any rule for carrying on the work in our various churches. The place and circumstances have much to do in determining the methods of doing evangelistic work. No one knows the need of or manner of doing the work better than the local pastor and session; upon them lies the burden and responsibility of the work, and to them the work should be given. In cases where advice and help are needed, the Presbytery or Synod should give all possible assistance, but Presbyterial or Synodic committee can never do, nor should they try to do, the work that belongs to the congregation.

Your committee has noticed with interest the reports of evangelistic work among the various Protestant churches during the past year. The old-time sensational revival plan seems to have been less in evidence than in former years while, on the other hand, work by the congregations seems to be on the increase.

Much good has been accomplished in some places by following the program laid down by our Forward Movement Committee, which could be easily modified to suit the present needs. In other places the same work, with equal success, was carried out by the local authorities.

It can be safely said, we believe, that among our own churches there has been more real heart-searching gospel preaching during the past year than heretofore, and that our people are beginning to see, feel and understand more fully the need of every pastor being an evangelist in his own field, and that every session should be co-laborers with him. The time has come when all should see that we cannot do the Lord's work by proxy. We may employ some one to do what we can not do, but we have no right to ask others to do what we should and can do.

Your committee has in no way assumed to dictate to local pastors and sessions. However, we would recommend the propriety of holding evangelistic conferences as often as possible for edification and encouragement.

Trusting that the coming year may be one of spiritual uplift among our churches, we submit our report.

Signed

W. R. McCHESNEY,
R. W. CHESNUT,

Mr. R. N. Colman requested that the Auditing Committee be excused from the deliberations of Synod in order that they might proceed with the work of Auditing Financial Reports. The request was granted.

There being no further reports or papers ready for presentation, Synod adjourned upon resolution; Rev. Alex. Savage D. D. concluded with prayer.

Same place, May 20, 2 P.M.

Synod convened and was constituted with prayer by the Moderator. The minutes were read and approved. The Moderator then announced the Order of the day: That the reports and the interests of Cedarville College be heard, and that W. R. McChesney, President of the College, preside. President McChesney then took charge of the program, calling upon Mr. McKune, of the Seminary, who made an announcement concerning the "Cedrus." Cedarville College Quartet rendered a selection, following which Synod united in singing the 100th Psalm; after which the Quartet gave another selection.

The following persons being present, were extended the courtesies of the floor: Rev. Leroy Allen, Xenia Presbytery United Presbyterian Church; Rev. W. W. Iliffe, D. D., Erie, Pa.; Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. J. Alvin Orr, D. D., Allegheny, Pa.; Rev. James M. McQuilkin, D. D., Carnegie, Pa.; Rev. R. S. McIlhenny, R. P. Church (Synod,) and Rev. J. P. White, U. P. Church, Cedarville, Ohio.

The report of the President of Cedarville College was then presented;

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

The President of the Faculty of Cedarville College reports as follows:

One regular meeting of the Board of Trustees was held since our last report. The officers and members of the Board of Trustees are: Class of 1920, W. C. Iliffe, Cedarville, Ohio; Oscar E. Bradfute, first vice president, Xenia, Ohio; Rev. W. R. McChesney, Ph. D., D. D., Cedarville, Ohio; S. C. Wright, A. B., '03 secretary, Cedarville, Ohio; Class of 1921, Prof. F. A. Jurkat, A. M., LL. D., treasurer, Cedarville, Ohio; Nathan L. Ramsey, second vice president, Cedarville, Ohio; William Conley, president, Cedarville, Ohio; Judge J. C. Marshall, A. B., '07, Xenia, Ohio; Class of 1922, James H. Creswell, Cedarville, Ohio; Rev. Homer McMillan, A. B., D. D., '97, Atlanta, Ga.; Rev. David McKinney, D. D., LL. D., Cincinnati, Ohio; Rev. John Alvin Orr, A. M., D. D., '97, Pittsburgh, Pa.

4 — $1052.74 has been added to the Endowment Fund since our last report to General Synod. The late Mr. Anderson Collins, of the Cedarville congregation, left a bequest of his farm of 100 acres, located near Cedarville, which has been appraised at $16,000. Mr. and Mrs. Collins were generous contributors during their lifetime, almost every year to Cedarville College. The proceeds from this farm are to be spent for the training of young men and young women in Cedarville College. The college will get full possession of the farm by the first of the year 1922. It is now under the supervision of the college and the director in charge is Mr. William Conley, president of the Board of Trustees. The College Corporation reveres the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Collins, who have so wisely given to the upbuilding of human character; and we are thankful to God that He directed them to bestow their liberality upon our college. Again it is our privilege and pleasure to acknowledge a gift of $500.00 from Miss Matilda McCollum for the Bible Chair Fund. About $17,000.00 must be raised yet in order to complete this particular fund. Our entire interest-bearing funds to date are: $116,543.74, an increase of $5052.74 during the past year. In 1915, at which time the present administration of the college took charge of affairs, the Endowment was $83,000. It now is $116,543.74, an increase of $50,000 in five and one-half years. Practically all of our endowment bears from 5 to 7 per cent. interest. The congregations of our General Synod have again demonstrated their loyalty to the college by their generous and liberal contributions, as have also the various organizations in the congregations. We are grateful to the entire church for its increasing heart-felt and substantial interest in the college.

The treasurer's report shows that all the bills of the college are paid up to date and the next month's salary has been advanced to each professor, and the coal for the coming year has been placed in the basement and is paid for, and there is yet a balance in the treasury of ~~$1750.00~~ with which to begin the new year.

The attendance in the past year has been the largest in the history of the college. Two hundred and five students were enrolled in all departments as follows: Seven Seniors, fourteen Juniors, twenty-seven Sophomores and twenty-two Freshmen, eleven Preparatory students, fourteen Theological students, twenty students in typewriting, thirty-three students in piano, forty-one students in voice, fourteen students in harmony, two students in History of Music, duplications, seventy-two; ~~net~~ total, one hundred thirty-three, an increase of eighteen students over the last year. The students are from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Arkansas, Alabama and Prince Edward Island. The following churches are represented: United Presbyterian, 24; Reformed Presbyterians, General Synod, 16; Methodist Episcopal, 14; Presbyterian, 13; Church of Christ, 2; Christian Scientist, 1; Lutheran, 1; Associate Presbyterian, 1; Congregational, 1; Adventist, 1; African Methodist Episcopal, 1; Roman Catholic, 2; Reformed Church, 2; members of no church, 2. Ninety-seven and one-half per cent. of the members of the student body are members of church. Seventeen and one-half per cent. of the student body is preparing for the Gospel ministry.

The college has received during the year twenty scholarships, given by friends of the institution. Thirty were needed, leaving ten to be raised before June 10th. These ten scholarships represent four hundred dollars in tuition.

Faculty meetings have been held regularly once a week throughout the year, at which the needs of the students and of the departments were considered, and as far as possible taken care of. The president of the college, aside from teaching in the college and the seminary, has given outside time to public addresses, visiting of schools, solicitations by letter, bulletins and personal call. The present college year began September 15, 1920, and will close with the annual commencement, June 10, 1921. Bishop Anderson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is to be the orator upon Commencement Day. There will be nine graduates, three of whom are from the Music Department. The roll of officers in administration and instruction during the past year has been as follows: Rev. W. R. McChesney, Ph. D., D. D., president and Professor of Philosophy, Greek and Oratory; Rev. F. A. Jurkat, A. M., LL. D., Professor of Modern Languages and History; Rev. LeRoy Allen, Ph. B., A. M., Professor of Latin, Bible and Sociology; Ethel B. Brand, A. B., Professor of English and French; Milicent L. Hathaway, A. B., Professor of Mathematics and Natural Science; Rev. R. S. McElhinney, A. B., A. M., Professor of Education; Florence Russell,

Professor of Instrumental Music; Miss Mary Goode Royal, Instructor in Vocal Music; J. Edwin Bradfute, assistant in Chemical Laboratory; Margaret Louisa Greer, Instructor in Biology; Josephine Randall, Instructor in Mathematics; Marion Stormont, Instructor in Civics; Edwin Dwight McKune, Instructor in Commercial Subjects; Rev. John Pressley White, M. D., Lecturer on Christian Missions; Mrs. John Pressley White, Lecturer on Christian Missions; Roger Collins, Director of Athletics; Mrs. A. E. Huey, Librarian; Helen Pauline Oglesbee, Assistant Professor of Instrumental Music; John C. Grindle, janitor.

The gratitude of the college authorities is due to Rev. and Mrs. White, who have so generously given their services free to the institution. Miss Hathaway, at her own request, has resigned from the faculty, her resignation to take effect at the close of the present collegiate year. On account of the continued high cost of living, an increase in the salaries of some of the professors has been made necessary for the coming year; however, it may be added that none of the professors is receiving a salary adequate to his or her needs and commensurate with the services rendered.

The graduates of the college now number two hundred and twenty-three. They are located in about thirty States, and in four foreign countries. They represent over twenty different vocations and are filling in many instances prominent positions in church and state.

The Y. M. and the Y. W. C. A. of Cedarville College have held several deeply spiritual series of meetings in the past year. These associations are especially helpful both to the faculty and the students of the college. The Orange and Blue Literary Club, consisting of most of the students of the college, is promoting the literary and social phases of life. On the Day of Prayer for colleges a most interesting and profitable spiritual service was enjoyed. Many helpful letters were received from friends of the college. About $900.00 was added to the Bible Chair Fund.

(Probably the most interesting year which the college has had in athletics is just coming to a close. The season of basket ball has been noteworthy for the greatest number of games and the largest attendance ever known in the history of the institution. The spirit of athletics in the college, high school and community has reached such a point that the three have combined in the raising of funds to secure an athletic director for the year 1921-1922, who shall train teams in football, basket ball and baseball, besides directing classes in calisthenics and gymnastics.) The interest of this community and of the alumni association in the progress and general welfare of the college has reached a high point. A mass meeting is to be held in Cedarville Opera House this evening, at which prominent members of the Alumni Association, ministers of the General Synod and citizens of Cedarville and nearby towns will take part, setting forth the value and the needs of the institution and the desirability of continuing Cedarville College in Cedarville. Also plans will be presented by means of which it is hoped to raise $100,000 for the remodeling of the Alford Gymnasium into a Science Hall, and the erection of a Ladies' Dormitory and a new Gymnasium, which sum it is hoped will be raised in this community. Also plans will be presented by means of which it is expected that the Alumni, the Reformed Presbyterian Church and friends of the institution elsewhere, will raise $100,000 for the Endowment Fund, in order to place Cedarville College among the Association Colleges of the State of Ohio, whereby it will receive recognition and its permanency will be assured.

We present the following recommendations to General Synod:

First: That each congregation under the care of General Synod, unless it have some other method of raising funds, set apart such Sabbath or Sabbaths of the year as may be deemed wise, to contribute benevolent offerings for the current expenses of the college, and that the notice of these offerings be made from each pulpit in the church at least two weeks before the offering is taken.

Second: That the pastors preach upon themes pertaining to Christian Education in which the specific virtues and needs of Cedarville College shall be presented upon the day that the church offerings are announced.

Third: That Sabbath Schools, Missionary Societies, Christian Endeavor organizations have their attention called to the needs and the support of Cedarville College.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS

The reports of our Presbyteries give us reason to be thankful. All the regular and some special meetings have been held. The lives of all the ministerial members have been spared. The Rev. Robert N. Colman was installed as pastor of the Fairview congregation on Wednesday, May 26, 1920. We commend him and the faithful congregation to the guidance and love of the Holy Spirit.

We note that several of the congregations have increased their pastors' salaries, and thus are to be commended for their substantial devotion to them who are over them in the Lord.

The recommendation of General Synod with reference to the sale of the Hill Prairie property has not yet been carried out because of the depression in the business world.

Six young men have been under the care of the Presbyteries, pursuing their courses for the gospel ministry. One of these, Paul Warren Duncan, was duly licensed by the Pittsburgh Presbytery, and has completed his theological course and will receive his degree from Cedarville College in June.

The Rev. Andrew S. Creswell, at his own request, was released from the pastorate of the Grand Cote congregation to accept a call within the bounds of the Detroit Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church. Rev. Wm. Waide was certified to the Presbyterian Church.

The Forward Movement has been generously supported by most of the congregations of General Synod. The Los Angeles congregation has the worthy distinction of having gone over the top in this movement.

The activity and contributions of the Women's Missionary Societies of the various congregations are most commendable and cause for encouragement.

The young people of the church are loyal and faithful.

The ordinances have been dispensed with and the spiritual life of the church has increased. We recommend first, that at least one conference be held within the bounds of each Presbytery during the year. The object of these conferences shall be to deliberate upon the state needs, of the various boards and movements of the church.

Second, that these conferences be held at the meetings of the various presbyteries and the program of these conferences be arranged by the evangelistic committee of General Synod.

(Signed) COMMITTEE.

The report was received; proceeded to pass on the recommendations.

The first recommendation was adopted.

" second " " "

The report was adopted as a whole and ordered published in the Minutes of Synod in connection with the reports of Presbyteries upon which it is based.

Mr. S. B. Anderson asked to be excused from further attendance upon the meetings of Synod; the request was granted.

Upon resolution Synod adjourned; Rev. Thomas Whyte concluded with prayer.

Same place, May 21, 9 A. M.

General Synod met at the appointed hour, and was constituted with prayer by Rev. John Parks. Mr. S. L. Robb, elder from the Coulterville, Congregation, conducted Devotional Exercises, in which the fervent spirit of prayerfulness was manifested. Synod then proceeded with business. The roll was called; the minutes were read and approved.

It was voted that the Rev. J. R. Fleming B. D., of Edinburg, who was present, representing the Presbyterian Alliance, be invited to sit as a consultative member and that the hearing of him be the order of the day at 2 P. M. today.

F. A. Jurkat, Treasurer of the Disabled Ministers' Fund, reported: Accepted and referred to the Auditing Committee. p. 17

The Moderator announced the Order of the day, namely, hearing the report of the Committee on the Forward Movement. The Rev. W. P. Harriman presented the report.

REPORT OF THE FORWARD MOVEMENT COMMITTEE

The Forward Movement Committee would respectfully submit to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America, in session at Cedarville, Ohio, the following report:

In accord with the action of General Synod at its last meeting, an attempt was made soon after that meeting to call the committee together at Cedarville, Ohio. Rev. Thos. Whyte declined to serve, after which it was decided to call a meeting of members of Synod representing the different Presbyteries to consider the matter and all issues involved before drawing up a program and plan of promotion.

On the sixth of July such a meeting was convened at Cedarville consisting of Rev. Jas. L. Chesnut, Rev. R. N. Coleman, Dr. F. A. Jurkat, Dr. W. R. McChesney and W. P. Harriman. There was no member from the Western Presbytery as no one could come at that time.

As a result of this conference, certain resolutions were approved expressing the purpose of the movement, and a program and plan of promotion were drawn up. All these things in the first pamphlet which was issued by the committee and was distributed during the last part of September.

In accord with the plan of the committee, the matter was personally presented by the chairman of said committee at a meeting of the Pittsburgh Presbytery, held at Beulah, Pa., on the second Tuesday of September. Here the movement was endorsed, and the support of the congregation was pledged.

From there the chairman and secretary went to Philadelphia where a conference was held in the Seventh R. P. Church, at which the pastors of the various churches and several of their elders were present. On the following Sabbath it was presented in the Third and Seventh Churches. The pastor of the latter, Rev. Jas. L. Chesnut, was in hearty sympathy with the work, and did all in his power to make our visit to that city profitable to the church and pleasant to us. During the year he has done all in his power to make the movement a success, as have also most of the other pastors throughout the church.

The program was presented in the Seventh Church in the afternoon.

On the following Tuesday the chairman visited Duquesburg, presenting the plan before the W. M. S. of that place.

Later the matter was presented at the meeting of the Western Presbytery, held in Coulterville, Ill., October 10, and on the following Sabbath in the churches at Coulterville, Sparta and Cutler, respectively.

At all of these places the work was well received, and a fine spirit of co-operation was manifest, and has continued throughout the year.

In accord with the plan of promotion, pamphlets have been issued weekly throughout the year bearing upon the different phases of the work. Altogether, 53,000 such pamphlets, pledges, etc., have been sent out.

As a result a considerable number of the different pledges have been signed and returned. There has been a noticeable increase in the receipts of the various boards, and several have noted a marked quickening of the spiritual life of the people.

Your committee desires to thank all who aided in making the work a success.

Among the pamphlets issued those prepared by Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Benson and Dr. S. M. Ramsey, respectively, are worthy of mention

A few copies are still on hand, and may be had on request.

In order to overcome a difficulty which has arisen about the distribution of "Forward Movement" funds, it should be borne in mind that all money contributed to the various church boards is hereafter to be considered as Forward Movement money, according to the decision of the Forward Movement Committee. Moreover, to make the matter absolutely clear, the following recommendations are offered for your consideration:

First—That all money contributed to any of the church boards be sent direct to the treasurer of said board.

Second—That hereafter Prof. F. A. Jurkat be treasurer of the administration fund of the Forward Movement, keeping a record of pledges and securing regular reports from congregational treasurers concerning the payment of same.

Third—That to meet the expenses of the Forward Movement General Synod levy on the various boards as follows: Foreign Mission Board, $240; Home Mission Board, $180; Cedarville College, $180; making a total of $600.

Fourth—That the work of the Forward Movement be commended to the church, and that General Synod urge a more complete co-operation on the part of pastors and people.

It was received and taken up for discussion.

The first recommendation was adopted.

" second " " "

" third " " "

" fourth " " "

The report was adopted as a whole. On this the ayes and nays were called: ayes, Revs. J. L. Chesnut, R. W. Chesnut, Alex. Savage, W. P. Harriman, W. R. McChesney, F. A. Jurkat, R. S. Elder, and L. A. Benson. Elders R. N. Colman, W. J. Imbrie, W. H. Creswell, Alex. McIntyre, S. L. Robb, A. B. McMillan. ayes 13. Nays, Revs. John Parks, Thos. Whyte, R. N. Colman. nays 3.

The hour having arrived, Synod adjourned, Rev. L. A. Benson concluding with prayer.

Same place, May 21, 2 P.M.

Synod convened at the appointed hour and was opened with prayer by Prof. F. A. Jurkat. The Minutes were read and after a slight correction, were approved.

The Moderator announced the order of the day to be the hearing of Rev. J. R. Fleming B. D. representative of the "Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System." It was voted that we shall hear with pleasure the address of this brother from abroad, for which we shall accord one half hour. The Moderator then introduced the Rev. J. R. Fleming, B. D. who proceeded to address the court.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved that we have heard with great pleasure the address of Rev. J. R. Fleming, B. D., of the Presbyterian Alliance;

Resolved further, that this Synod cordially reciprocates the greetings, bidding him God-speed in the work in which he is engaged.

The Superintendents of the Theological Seminary presented their report:

THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SUPERINTENDENTS OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Board of Superintendents of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, met in the Grant Street Reformed Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, on May 20, 1920, and was organized with the Rev. J. S. Chesnut as chairman and the Rev. A. S. Creswell as secretary. A series of recommendations were drawn and sent to the Dean of the Seminary. These recommendations are found in the Dean's report.

The Board met at the call of the chairman in the Carnegie Library, Cedarville, Ohio, May 17, 1921, and was reorganized, the Rev. L. A. Benson being chosen by the Board to fill the unexpired term of Rev. A. S. Creswell, who has left the denomination. R. N. Colman, Jr., was chosen secretary. The superintendents approved the examination papers and heard a sermonette by each member of the seminary student body. The work of the students on their papers and in their sermonettes showed that excellent work had been done by the professors and students. Each professor approved and indorsed the action of the Board in having the examination changed to written instead of oral. Each professor submitted a report for the work done in his respective department and these reports were ordered read on the floor of General Synod.

The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That inasmuch as Paul W. Duncan and Stiner L. Lee have completed the required work in the Seminary that they be recommended to the Board of Trustees for diplomas.

Resolved, That C. E. Brown, R. W. Clarke, G. A. Colman, C. G. Duncan, N. C. Elder, D. H. Hammond, G. L. Markle, E. D. McKim and N. H. Thorn, having made creditable showing in the work pursued, be advanced in their respective courses.

The Board of Superintendents would make the following recommendations:

1. That hereafter no student shall be entered in the Seminary without having High School diploma or equivalent, and previous order of General Synod on this matter be rescinded.

2. That the Trustees of the Theological Seminary be requested to pay the treasurer of Cedarville College the sum of $130 for rental and that they issue an order on their treasurer for payment of same.

3. That the Trustees of the Theological Seminary, in accordance with previous order of General Synod, be requested to pay the treasurer of Cedarville College $500 and that they issue an order on the treasurer, Mr. W. J. Imbrie, for payment of same.

4. That the Trustees of the Theological Seminary be requested to pay the professors the sum of $1000 annually, in payments of $500, the payments to be made the first of November and the second payment the first of March, and that they issue an order on the treasurer of the Theological Seminary for these amounts.

5. That the Trustees of the Theological Seminary be requested to pay students under the care of the different presbyteries the amount of $125 a year for student aid, and that they issue an order on the treasurer of the Lamb Fund for payment of the same.

6. That the Trustees of the Theological Seminary be requested to pay the traveling expenses of the Board of Superintendents and that they issue an order on the treasurer of the Theological Seminary, Mr. W. J. Imbrie, for payment of the following amounts:

Rev. J. L. Chesnut .....	$18.00
Rev. L. A. Benson .....	27.00
R. N. Colman .....	12.00

Signed,

JAMES L. CHESNUT,

The reports of the various Professors in the Seminary were also presented, received and ordered published in the Minutes.

The report of the Superintendents was received for consideration.

REPORT OF THE DEAN OF THE SEMINARY AND PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC AND PASTORAL THEOLOGY AND NEW TESTAMENT GREEK

To the Board of Superintendents of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary, General Synod:

The Dean of the Seminary and the Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology and New Testament Greek would report that the present session of the Seminary year opened, September 15, 1920, and closed recitations, May 6, 1921. The examinations were conducted May 9-13, 1921, and the Board of Superintendents met and passed upon these examinations May 16, 1921.

At the opening of the year the Dean received the following communication from the Board of Superintendents, and the faculty met and adopted the suggestions and have carried them out through the year.

These professors have been in charge of the work of instruction during the year just closed, viz., Rev. F. A. Jurkat, A. M., LL. D., secretary of the faculty and Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament and New Testament Literature and Church History; Rev. Leroy Allen, Ph. B., A. M., Professor of Homiletics Biblical Theology, Archaeology and Sociology.

Fourteen students were in attendance, viz., Charles Edward Brown, George Colman, Carl Gracy Duncan, Paul Warren Duncan, Newton Carl Elder, David Harold Hammond, Styner Loadman Lee, Edward Dwight McKune, Henry Come Malin, George Laclede Markle, Gavin Reilly, Robert Willard Stewart, Nelson Horatio Thorn and Riley Clarke. Messrs. Malin and Reilly were compelled to drop their work before the session closed, the former on account of broken health, the latter because of a lack of means. Both have expressed their hope of returning next year.

We recommended Messrs. Paul Warren Duncan and Steyner Loadman Lee for diplomas from the Seminary in recognition of their having creditably completed the prescribed courses assigned them. Mr. Thorn has been doing work for four years in the Seminary; Messrs. Hammond, Lee and Stewart have been doing work for three years in the Seminary, while Messrs. Brown, Carl Duncan, Elder, McKune, Malin, Markle and Reilly have been doing work in the second year. Mr. Clarke has been doing work in the first year, as has Mr. Colman also. Messrs. Brown, Markle, Malin and Thorn are members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Mr. McKune is a United Presbyterian, Mr. Lee is an African Methodist, and Messrs. Colman, Clarke, Paul Duncan, Carl Duncan, Elder, Hammond, Stewart and Reilly are members of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod. Messrs. Clarke, Paul Duncan, Carl Duncan and Hammond are under the care of the Pittsburgh Presbytery; Mr. Stewart is under the care of the Western Presbytery; Mr. Colman is under the care of the Philadelphia Presbytery, and Mr. Reilly is under the care of the Ohio Presbytery. These students have been punctual, faithful, respectful and progressive in their work. They have been doing a special missionary work in conducting a Sabbath School since the first of January among the six hundred children of Ohio Sailors' and Soldiers' Orphans' Home in Xenia. They have preached nearly every Sabbath of the year in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania, in Reformed Presbyterian, United Presbyterian, Presbyterian and Methodist pulpits. They rendered invaluable service during the evangelistic meetings held in Cedarville last fall. All of the students preached two trial sermons each, before the faculty and the students during the year. We conclude this part of our report, expressing our appreciation of the loyalty of our theological students and with thankful acknowledgment to God for His goodness to both students and faculty.

The report on the classes in this department is as follows: Messrs.

Brown, Carl Duncan, Paul Duncan, Carl Elder, Harold Hammond, Lee Malin, McKune and Stewart pursued the course in Systematic Theology. Mr. Malin dropped out, on account of poor health, before the close of the first semester. The subjects studied were: The Idea of Theology, Material of Theology, Method of Theology, Origin of Our Idea of God's Existence, Corroborative Evidences of God's Existence, Erroneous Explanations of God's Existence, Revelation, Miracles, Prophecy, Genuineness of Books of Bible, Creditability of the Writers, Inspiration and the Attributes of God. The students did careful work and got a thorough review of the ground covered.

In Pastoral Theology the following subjects were pursued: Public Schemes of the Church, Reforms, Witnessing, Sister Denominations, Evangelism, Revivals, The Pastor As a Man, The Pastor and His Pulpit. The following ministers lectured on themes pertinent and practical in Pastoral Theology: Revs. Busler, J. P. White, T. R. Turner, D. D., J. Alvin Orr, D. D., E. M. McKibben and Rev. Jamison. The students in this course were Messrs. Brown, Hammond, Lee, Malin, McKune, Carl Duncan, Markle, Stewart and Thorn. Mr. Malin was compelled to leave the class for reason previously mentioned. These young gentlemen acquitted themselves with credit in the work.

The class in New Testament Greek consisted of Messrs. Brown, Colman, Clarke, Malin, Markle, McKune and Paul Duncan. The Greek grammar was thoroughly reviewed. Systematical constructions were dwelt upon. Exegetes of passages were brought out. The Greek was read in I John, I Corinthians, Matthew, Luke, Hebrews and the Gospel of John. The class did splendid and interesting work.

The following students pursued Bible Oratory practice reading in the Book of Job and the Song of Solomon and the Gospel of John: Messrs. Clarke, Elder, Reilly, Carl Duncan, Malin and Lee. Mr. Malin was compelled to drop the work in this class and in Greek New Testament because of ill health. Mr. Reilly had to discontinue because of lack of funds.

Systematic Theology recited twice a week, Pastoral Theology once a week, Greek New Testament three times a week, and Bible Oratory once a week throughout the year.

Praying the blessing of the great King and head of the church upon you in all of your deliberations, this report is respectfully submitted.

W. R. McCHESNEY.

Cedarville, Ohio, May 16, 1921.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT OF HEBREW, CHURCH HISTORY, AND OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT LITERATURE

To the Board of Superintendents:

Church History was given three times a week this year, covering the whole course in that subject, because there was a senior in the class who had not had any Church History before. The text was Fisher, with parallel reading in Robinson & Beard. In addition, a set of questions was given, covering the history of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. The members of the class were Messrs. Brown, Colman, Hammond, Lee, Markle and McKune. The students were all diligent. Some of the members of the class, however, were handicapped by a lack of knowledge of preparatory secular history.

In New Testament Literature, Mr. Lee was the only member of the class in the first semester. He finished his requirements at the middle of the year, using Angus as a text. In the second semester, Messrs. McKune and Thorn recited twice a week, in Moffatt's Introduction. This was the equivalent of a year's work for them.

The class in Old Testament Literature recited once a week throughout the year. The text was Eiselen. The members of the class were Messrs. Clark, Hammond, McKune and Stewart for the whole year, and Mr. Thorn for the second semester.

The class in Beginners' Hebrew finished the regular year's work, covering one-half of Davidson's Grammar, and nearly all of Harper's Manual. They read the first four chapters of Genesis. The members of the class were Messrs. Clark, McKune and Stewart.

Mr. Lee finished his Advanced Hebrew requirements at the middle of the year, reading chapters in various parts of the Old Testament.

On the whole, I commend the diligence and spirit of all who were in my classes. I would recommend, however, that theology students be advised to finish their preparatory work before plunging too deeply into theological studies.

Respectfully submitted, F. A. Jurkat.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF HOMILETICS, BIBLICAL THEOLOGY AND ARCHAEOLOGY

To the Board of Superintendents of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

Dear Sir: The class in elementary homiletics made a study of the science and art of preaching, using the text of Broadus on the Preparation and Delivery of Sermons. G. A. Colman completed the work of the entire year in this class, while Gavin Reilly completed the work of the first semester only.

The class in advanced homiletics devoted itself to the analysis of biblical texts and the preparation and criticism of sermon outlines. The following students completed the work of the entire year: C. G. Duncan, S. L. Lee, D. H. Hammond, G. L. Markle. The following completed the first semester's work only: C. E. Brown, G. A. Colman, P. W. Duncan, N. C. Elder, Gavin Reilly, N. H. Thorn. E. D. McKune completed the second semester's work only.

The class in biblical theology made a study of the teachings of the Epistles of James, Peter, John and Jude and of the Revelation. The text used was that of Dr. Moorehead. The work of the entire year was taken by P. W. Duncan, E. D. McKune, G. L. Markle, S. L. Lee, N. H. Thorn. C. G. Duncan completed the work of the first semester only.

The class in archaeology made a study of the evolution of the Hebrew people with the special purpose of seeing how this nation, under the guidance of the divinely inspired prophets, triumphed over the popular superstitions that beset them as well as all other early peoples. The text studied was Wild's Evolution of the Hebrew People. Those who completed the work of the entire year were: Lucinda Caskey, C. G. Duncan, Lorene Glass, D. H. Hammond, S. L. Lee, E. D. McKune, Charlotte McLeod Iva Pullman, N. H. Thorn. The work of the first semester only was completed by P. W. Duncan and Edna Griffith. The following students completed the work of the second semester only: Paul Bryant, R. W. Clarke, Louise McCullough, G. L. Markle, Edith Ramsey, Ruth Shaw, R. W. Stewart, John Waite.

The students this year were unusually regular and faithful in the performance of all seminary duties.

Each student in the seminary preached once before the faculty and students each semester. Owing to the removal of the United Presbyterian Seminary from Xenia, Ohio, to St. Louis, Mo., and to the fact that our own seminary is becoming better known in this region, the students have had much more preaching to do in surrounding churches than usual. This has been a very practical and helpful supplement to the work in homiletics.

With gratitude to God for His gracious providence, and especially for health and strength granted to complete this strenuous and successful year, this report is respectfully submitted by

LEROY ALLEN.

Rev. W. R. McChesney, D. D., Dean
Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Cedarville, Ohio.

Dear Brother: The members of the Board of Superintendents of the Cedarville Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church send their cordial greetings to you and the other members of the Seminary Faculty as you enter upon the work of the new term. We earnestly pray that God may richly bless you in your work of training young men for the ministry of the Gospel and make this year one of the best years in the history of the Seminary. We pray that every student may have the guidance of the Holy Spirit as they may "give diligence to present themselves approved unto God, workmen that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth."

Believing that it will be of assistance to both faculty and students in their work we present the following recommendations:

1. We recommend that the closing examination for this year shall consist of a written examination in each subject to be given and graded by the professors, the papers to be submitted to the Board for approval.
2. We recommend that the Theological Seminary close this term on May 6, 1921; examinations to begin on May 9, 1921. The Board of Superintendents will meet on May 17, 1921, to hear a specimen of progress from each student; this specimen of progress to be limited to ten minutes.
3. We recommend that the Dean of the Theological Seminary be instructed to secure at least six successful pastors to lecture to the students of the Theological Seminary during the year; at least four of these lectures to deal with some practical theme on pastoral theology. Any expense incurred to be placed under miscellaneous.

Respectfully submitted,

The secretary of the Foreign Mission Board presented the report:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America.

The Board of Foreign Missions would respectfully report as follows:

Since our last annual report the work of our Mission in India has been going on with greater success than we could have expected under the circumstances. Dr. and Mrs. Taylor have been without the help of any other person from this country, but they have so managed the work that the Mission has not suffered in any way so far as we have learned. The native workers have been kept busy, and their monthly reports and conferences have been encouraging and profitable. The new order requiring the workers to come together monthly to report the work done, the difficulties encountered and the successes attained has proven to be a source of help to the workers as well as to the management of the Mission.

At present we have one American missionary and his wife, who direct the Mission, and also attend as far as possible to the physical needs of the people. In addition to these, we have one ordained native preacher, Rev. Edwin Fiske. There was one licentiate, Mr. Itr Singh, who died March 20, 1921. His place will be filled as soon as possible by another man.

There are also nine men, mission workers, namely: Hukin Chand, Mihi Lal, N. S. Hardy, Mul Chand, Turat Masih, Prm Das, Shakrati, Piyari Singh and Dal Chand.

There are also eight women workets, seven of whom are wives of seven of the above-mentioned men, namely, Mrs. Hukin Chand, Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Mihi Lal, Mrs. Mul Chand, Mrs. Shabrati, Mrs. Pizari Singh, Mrs. Prem Das and Mrs. Itr Singh. These men and women, 17 in all, go from village to village as teachers and catechists, doing the pioneer work of the Christian missionary.

Mr. A. B. Varman finishes his medical course this month, and he has charge of the Mission Dispensary, and will be able to clear his salary and other running expenses.

There are two theological students, Tati Ram, who is in the American Presbyterian Seminary at Saharaupur, and B. D. Sherman, who is in the United Presbyterian Seminary at Gujranwala.

The attention of the Board has been called to the fact that Dr. Taylor's furlough is due in the spring of 1922, and that the necessary preparation should be made for his return.

The matter of education is not being neglected among our boys and girls in the Mission. There are 16 in the boys' school and 16 in the girls' school and 1 in the Industrial School and 2 receiving higher education, making 37, including our theological students.

It has been a pleasure to correspond with Dr. Taylor. The correspondence has not been as large as might have been, but sufficient to meet the needs of the year now closing. The budget for this year has been received and it is before the Board and Synod for consideration. We are sorry that no statistical report such as we have asked for has been received. The budget is 20,110 rupees.

Dr. Taylor with his family expect to return next year on their furlough. As that will leave the Mission without any one from America at its head, it will be necessary for the Board to either send out some one to take up the work in his absence, or appoint some one in some of the other Missions to act as our financial agent in receiving and distributing the funds in his absence. The Doctor and his wife have well earned their furlough, and we hope that should they in the good providence of God be permitted to return home that their presence may stir us up to greater activity in the interests of our Mission in India than ever.

The report of our Treasurer has been presented to Synod and shows our financial standing. The report is the best in recent years and we should all take courage and thank God for His goodness to us as a Church.

Mrs. Mary L. Taylor, who last year offered her services to the Board, and although accepted, she was unable to get passage to India, and has been teaching school during the past year.

We have so far been unable to secure a married man to go out to India, and we would earnestly press this matter upon the minds of our young men who are entering the ministry. The field is ripe for the harvest. Who will enter it? The call is urgent, who will answer it? Let us pray that the Lord may send laborers into His vineyard. We need some young man of loyal heart, steady nerve, strong body and consecrated life to enter the foreign mission field.

1. The Board would recommend that during the year the Corresponding Secretary would present, through the Advocate, the need for more young men to take up the work of the gospel ministry in view of entering the foreign mission field, and that our ministers keep the matter before the young.

2. The Board recommends that our ministers and Sessions keep before the people the financial needs of the Mission and urge them to support the Mission to the best of their ability.

Thankful to God for His care and blessing, and praying for a continuation of the same, we respectfully submit this our report.

R. W. CHESNUT,
Corresponding Secretary.

The report was received for consideration. Discussion proceeded.

The first recommendation was adopted.

“ second “ “ “ “

The report and recommendations were adopted as a whole, with the understanding that the Executive Committee of the Foreign Mission Board shall have authority to arrange for a suitable meeting and program in connection with the return of Dr. Taylor and his wife to the Synod of 1922.

Mr A. B. McMillan, Treasurer of the Foreign Mission Board, made announcement of the fact that congregations and auxiliary societies had turned in their contributions in time to have his account made up before Synod opened, a thing for which he was thankful, and requested that the same course be pursued next year.

Mr. W. Conley, the agent of Synod, in connection with the Julia H. Kendal Estate, made his report.

The report was received and referred to the Auditing Committee.

General Synod, in a unanimous vote, expressed its thanks to Mr. Conley for his services in connection with this Estate.

Rev. W. R. McChesney presented a paper consisting of a preamble and resolution concerning the Endowment Fund for Cedarville College.

ENDOWMENT FUND OF CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

Whereas, The Alumni Association of Cedarville College, numbering two hundred and twenty-three members, have challenged the village and community of Cedarville to raise $100,000 for the remodeling of the Alford Gymnasium into an up-to-date Science Hall, also for the erection of a dormitory for girls and another building to be a gymnasium with the guarantee that the Alumni Association will raise the same amount elsewhere for the Endowment Fund, both sums to be raised within five years; and

Whereas, At a large mass meeting of the citizens of Cedarville and community held in the Cedarville Opera House, Friday evening, May 20, 1921, said citizens voted unanimously to accept such challenge; and

Whereas, The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association expect to raise the $100,000 for the Endowment Fund among the Alumni themselves, former students of the college, friends of the institution and the members of our Reformed Presbyterian Church; and

Whereas, The Alumni Association through their committee has asked the president of the college to secure from this General Synod at this meeting a definite action as to what support this General Synod will give toward the raising of this Endowment Fund of $100,000 during the next five years; therefore be it

Resolved, First—That this General Synod approve of the action of the Alumni Association and pledge their co-operation and that of the Presbyteries and congregations to the successful accomplishment of this project;

Second—That this General Synod pledge itself to secure during the next five years the sum of not less than $25,000 for the Endowment Fund of Cedarville College;

Third—As a ways and means to accomplish this end that the minimum amount to be asked per member in each congregation of General Synod for the Endowment Fund be $3 a year for five years;

Fourth—That this sum may be raised by duplex envelope plan, subscription, contribution, individual gift, annuity plan, the giving of bonds, or any other way acceptable to congregations and individuals;

Fifth—That in accord with recommendation 8 of the Report of the President of Cedarville College, the pastors and Sessions arrange at their earliest possible convenience to have a meeting of pastors, sessions and trustees of the congregations with the president of the college for conference and for the promotion of plans toward the raising of the Endowment Fund.

The paper was received for discussion. It was then laid on the table until a full meeting of Synod.

The following resolution was adopted:

SUBMITTED TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whereas, The whole civilized world has been profoundly exercised over the outrages which continue to be committed against the oppressed Christian peoples of the Near East; and

Whereas, The continued fighting has prevented the normal habilitation of large numbers of the people and has turned new thousands adrift as homeless refugees; and

Whereas, The Near East Relief, incorporated by Congress to carry hundreds of clinics, soup kitchens, relief industries and has sheltered for over 100,000 orphaned children, has operated sixty-three hospitals, on non-sectarian humanitarian relief work in that area, has been caring in rescue homes the girls of Armenia who have escaped from Turkish slavery; and

Whereas, It is inconceivable that Christian America should abandon these helpless little children and girls, or desert these homeless people, our valiant allies of the great war in this hour of desperate need; be it therefore

Resolved, That the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian give its hearty endorsement to the Near East relief, which has proven itself ably qualified to carry on this work in a constructive and economical way, and that ministers of the Church bring this imperative appeal for help to the attention of their congregations.
